THE Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, with deep regret, publishes for general information the undermentioned particulars, extracted from the Times newspaper, with regard to the loss of the "Josephine Willis."

Superintendent.

THE FATAL COLLISION OFF FOLKESTONE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES.

Sir,—We beg to hand you herewith the names of the passengers per the Josephine Willis. We very much fear that of the melancholy list of missing none are now likely to be surviving. We find that the report of a boat having arrived at Dover with 11 persons is incorrect.

We are, sir, your obedient servants,
HENRY H. WILLIS AND Co.
