PROCLAMATION.

By JOHN WILLIAMSON, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, in the Colony of New Zealand.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand intituled the "Taranaki Settlers Relief Act 1860," it is amongst other things enacted that every application for relief by the said Act authorised to be made, should be accompanied by a declaration, to be made as by the said Act appointed, and that after the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand should have made such enquiries as to him should seem fit for ascertaining the truth of such Declaration, it should be lawful for the said Governor to issue to such applicant an Order entitling such applicant to select from the Waste Lands of the Crown within the Province specified in such Declaration Land of the value of Forty Pounds to be estimated in the manner and subject to the conditions in the said Act mentioned. AND by the said Act it is further provided that no such Order should be issued with respect to any Province until the Superintendent thereof should have declared by Proclamation in the Government Gazette of the said Province that the said Act should be in force in such Province. NOW THEREFORE I, the Superintendent of the said Province of Auckland, do hereby proclaim and declare that the said "Taranaki Settlers Relief Act" is and from the date hereof, and from the publication hereof in the Auckland Provincial Government Gazette shall be in force in the Province of Auckland aforesaid.

Given under my hand, at Auckland, in the said Province, this sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

J. WILLIAMSON,
Superintendent.
