AUCKLAND PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT DEBENTURES.

Superintendent's Office, Auckland,
July 28th, 1856.

NOTICE is hereby given that Tenders will be received at this office until noon of WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of October, 1856, from persons desirous of advancing the whole or any portion of the sum of Twenty Thousand Pounds, on the security of Debentures, to be issued under the provisions in that behalf contained in the two Acts of the Local Legislature of the Province of Auckland, intituled respectively "The Debentures Act, 1856," and "An Act for the Appropriation of the Revenue and other Moneys for the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six," namely—

1. If a Tender be accepted, Debentures, secured on so much of the Revenue of the Province of Auckland, as is subject to the appropriation of the Local Legislature thereof, will be issued for the sum advanced, on payment of the amount, in cash, into the Public Treasury of the Province,

2. The Debentures will be payable to bearer, and will be issued for such sums (not being for less than £100, nor for any broken sum of £50 additional,) as may be specified in the Tender.

3. The principal will not be payable until the 1st day of May, 1865, nor until such further time after the said 1st day of May as the Local Legislature shall by an Act to be passed in that behalf direct and appoint; and will bear interest in the meantime at the rate of 10 per centum per annum, payable half-yearly on presentation of the Debentures at the Provincial Treasury, at Auckland, on or after the 1st day of January and the 1st day of July in every year.

4. Parties tendering are requested to state—

1. The amount they are prepared to advance, and the sum (not being below par) which they offer for each £100 of such Debentures.

2. Whether or not the Tender is conditional upon the acceptance of the full amount, or of any specified portions, of the sum offered.

5. Tenders to be sealed, and endorsed "Tenders for Debentures."

J. LOGAN CAMPBELL,
Superintendent

PROCLAMATION.

By his Honor JOHN LOGAN CAMPBELL,
Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Auckland.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance of the late Legislative Council of the Colony of New Zealand, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Ordinance for the regulation of Prisons," it was amongst other things enacted that all houses, buildings, enclosures, or places which were used as public gaols at the time of passing such Ordinance, should be, and the same were thereby declared to be public gaols of the said colony, and that it should be lawful for the Governor of the said colony, from time to time, as to him should seem meet, by proclamation, to declare any other house, building, enclosure, or place, to be a public gaol, and that the house, building, enclosure, or place, so declared to be a public gaol, should be deemed and taken to be such, from and after the date of the said proclamation; and whereas by an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the session thereof, holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it was amongst other things enacted that there should be for each of the Provinces by such Act established in the said Colony, a Superintendent and a Provincial Council, to be elected and constituted as and in manner therein provided, and that it should be lawful for the Superintendent of such Province, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, to make and ordain, for the peace, order, and good government of such Province, all such laws and ordinances as are in that behalf therein described. And whereas by an Act of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Auckland, (one of the Provinces aforesaid) intituled "An Act to transfer certain powers and duties from the Governor and Colonial Treasurer of New Zealand, to the Superintendent and Provincial Treasurer of the Province of Auckland respectively," it was amongst other things enacted that all the Acts authorized or required to be performed by, and all the powers conferred upon or given to, the said Governor, by certain Ordinances enumerated in the schedule unto such Act annexed, should thenceforth cease to be performed and exercised by such Governor, and that all such Acts and powers should and might be thenceforth performed and exercised as fully and effectually, for all purposes whatever within the said Province of Auckland by the Superintendent thereof; such Acts and powers could theretofore be done and exercised by the said Governor in such Province. And whereas the Ordinance hereinbefore firstly recited is one of the Ordinances enumerated in the said schedule, and whereas a building, commonly called "The Stockade," has been recently erected at Mount Eden, in the suburbs of the Town of Auckland, in the said Province of Auckland, to serve as and for a public gaol, and it is expedient that the same should be declared to be a building for such purpose, now, therefore, I, John Logan Campbell, Esquire, Superintendent of the said Province of Auckland, do hereby, under and in pursuance of the powers vested in me in that behalf by the Ordinance and Acts hereinbefore recited, declare and proclaim that the said building at Mount Eden, commonly called, as aforesaid, "The Stockade," is, and shall be, a public gaol, from and after the publication of this proclamation.

Given under my hand and seal, at Auckland aforesaid, the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

(L.S.) J. LOGAN CAMPBELL.

By his Honor's command,
HUGH CARLETON,
Provincial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.
