JOHN MARSHMAN, Provincial Auditor.

(a) Under instructions from the General Government the portion of the Customs' Duties payable to the Province is one half of the nett proceeds instead of two-thirds as formerly. These instructions were directed to take effect from the 1st. of July last. The amount payable to the Province for the present Quarter would have been £1264. 19s. 1d. but a sum of £316. 4s. 10d. was deducted by the General Government to adjust the account between it and the Province since the 1st of July. An over payment of 6s. 8d. was made in error by the Collector of Customs.

(b) This sum includes £90 contributed toward the cost of the Road south of Christchurch by the inhabitants of the District.

(c) The General Government undertook to provide for the expense of Steam communication and directed the repayment of the outlay which the Province had already incurred.

Balance in the Treasury on the 30th Sept., 1854, brought down 1592 3 8
