VOL. VII. NELSON, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1859. No. 16.

PROCLAMATION.

By his Honour JOHN PERRY ROBINSON, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Nelson, in the Islands of New Zealand, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, passed in the session holden in the 21st and 22nd years of the reign of her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to extend the time within which the Governor is required to signify his pleasure on Bills passed by Provincial Councils and reserved by Superintendents," it is amongst other things enacted that such Bills shall not have any force or authority within the said province until the Superintendent shall signify either by speech or message to the Provincial Council or by proclamation in the Government Gazette of the said province, that such Bill has been laid before the Governor, and that the Governor has assented to the same: And whereas an Ordinance was passed by the Provincial Council of the Province of Nelson, Session VI., intituled "An Act to enable the Nelson Board of Works to raise the Sum of Fifteen Hundred Pounds by the issue of Debentures," and the same was reserved by me for the assent of his Excellency the Governor:

Now, therefore, I, the said Superintendent of the Province of Nelson, do hereby proclaim and declare that the aforesaid Ordinance has been laid before his Excellency the Governor, and that his Excellency has assented to the same.

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the province, at Nelson, this Twenty-second day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

J. P. ROBINSON,
Superintendent.

By his Honour's command,
ALFRED DOMETT,
Provincial Secretary.
