VOL. IX.

NELSON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1861.

No. 19.

PROCLAMATION.

CONTAINING REGULATIONS UNDER THE
"DISEASED CATTLE ACT, 1861."

WHEREAS by the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it was provided that the Governor in Council might by warrant under his hand from time to time delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the Colony of New Zealand, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or Governor in Council by the said Act, subject to such regulations as he might think fit, and might from time to time rescind such delegation; and whereas the said Governor hath with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand delegated to John Perry Robinson, Esquire, so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Nelson, the several powers vested in the said Governor by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth Sections of the said Act, subject to being rescinded as in the said Act, provided and subject to the regulations issued by the Governor in Council, on the first of October, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and to any other regulations to be from time to time duly made.

Now therefore, I, the said John Perry Robinson, by virtue of such powers in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare—

That after the date hereof, the several Colonies of Australia, that is to say, the Colony of Victoria of New South Wales, of Queensland, of South Australia, and Western Australia, as well as the Colony of Tasmania, and the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, shall be deemed to be for the purposes of the above recited Act infected Districts within the meaning of the said Act, and that no Cattle shall be allowed to be imported from the above mentioned Districts, and that in the case where any Cattle may be imported from the said Districts such Cattle shall be destroyed forthwith, in such manner and at such places as the Superintendent may proclaim and appoint.

That after the date of these regulations the Provinces of Otago and Southland in the said Colony of New Zealand shall be deemed infected Districts within the meaning of the said Act, and that no Cattle shall be imported from the said Provinces either by land or sea.

That Thomas Newton shall be appointed Inspector under the second Section of the said Act, and such Inspector shall produce on demand to any person requiring the same a copy of the said Act, and all regulations appertaining thereto.

Given under my hand, at Nelson, this Twelfth day of December, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

J. P. ROBINSON,
Superintendent.
