No. 10. Militia Branch.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 16th January, 1862.

SIR,—The issue of new Regulations for the enrolment of Volunteers in New Zealand necessitates the disbandment of the present Force, and I have to request you, in communicating this circumstance to the respective Commanding Officers of Volunteer Corps to express through them to the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of each Corps the full appreciation by His Excellency the Governor of the public spirit which led to the formation of these Corps, and to convey to them His Excellency's best thanks for the services which they have thus rendered to the Colony in a time of difficulty.

In these sentiments His Excellency's Responsible Advisers cordially join.

The new Regulations have been framed with a view to the further encouragement of the Volunteer movement and to the permanent establishment, in this Colony, of a Volunteer Force on an improved basis, and it is earnestly hoped that they will lead to the attainment of so desirable a result.

I have, &c.,
WILLIAM FOX.

Lieut.-Colonel Balneavis,
Deputy-Adjutant General.
