DANIEL M'LEOD, of Westport, in the Province of Nelson, Contractor, having been authorised under Clause XIII. of "The Goldfields Act 1866," to construct a Wharf on the North Bank of the Buller River, opposite Kennedy-street, is hereby authorised to charge not exceeding the undermentioned Tolls on the said Wharf, for a period of Five Years from the first day of October, One thousand eight hundred and seventy, on the following terms and conditions.

1. That the said Daniel M'Leod shall maintain the said wharf in good repair and condition during the said term, and pay a rental of five pounds per annum to the Warden of the district, or to some other person authorised by the Superintendent to receive the same.
2. The wharf shall be subject to the provisions of the Harbor Regulations which may from time to time be in force in the Buller river.
3. Should the Government consider it necessary for the construction of protective works, or for any other public purpose, the Superintendent shall have power to cancel this protection at any time; and the said Daniel M'Leod shall, in that case, be paid the value of the wharf at the time of such cancellation, but the said Daniel M'Leod shall not be entitled to compensation beyond the actual value of the structure, which will be ascertained in the usual way.
4. The Warden of the district shall have power, on being satisfied that the wharf is not maintained in a good state of repair, or that any of the above conditions have not been carried out, to suspend the operation of this protection until the matter of complaint be removed, and if not removed within a reasonable time the Superintendent may cancel this protection.
5. In the event of this protection being cancelled under the provisions of clause 4 hereof, the said wharf, with all fixtures thereon, shall become the property of the Provincial Government of Nelson, and the Superintendent shall have power to take immediate possession thereof on behalf of the province, and the said Daniel M'Leod or his assigns shall not in such case be entitled to any compensation.

Superintendent's Office, Nelson,
12th October, 1870.

THE following Proclamation by his Honor the Superintendent of Canterbury, is published for general information.

ALFRED GREENFIELD,
Provincial Secretary.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by "The Diseased Cattle Act 1861," it is enacted that the Governor in Council may, by Warrant under his hand, from time to time delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the Colony all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or the Governor in Council by the said Act, subject to such regulations as he may think fit. And whereas, by the fourth section of "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act 1865," it is enacted that the Governor may, by any Order in Council, from time to time annul, make void, or alter or vary and make anew, any Orders in Council, regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations made and published by the Governor under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act 1861," or of "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act 1865," or by the Superintendent of any Province under or in pursuance of any powers delegated under the powers of delegation contained in "The Diseased Cattle Act 1861," or "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act 1865." And whereas, by the fifth section of "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act 1865," it is enacted that the power of annulling, making void, or allowing or varying and making anew, any such regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations, vested in the Governor by "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act 1865," may from time to time be delegated by the Governor in Council, by Warrant under his hand, to the Superintendent of any Province:

And whereas the said Governor hath, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to William Rolleston, Esquire, the Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, within the said Province, so long as he shall remain Superintendent of the Province, the several powers vested in the Governor or the Governor in Council by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth sections of "The Diseased Cattle Act 1861," aforesaid, and all the powers which by the fifth section of "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act 1865," the Governor in Council is authorised so to delegate:

Now therefore I, WILLIAM ROLLESTON, by virtue of such powers in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare that, after the date of the publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette, all that portion of the Middle Island of New Zealand lying to the north of the Hurunui River, and of a straight line from the source of that river to the County of Westland, the County of Westland, and the Provinces of Otago and Southland in the Middle Island, and the Provinces of Auckland and Taranaki in the North Island, shall be deemed Infected Districts within the meaning of the said Acts: and I do further proclaim and declare the following Regulations for the destruction of diseased cattle, and for the preventing and regulating the removal or transportation of cattle from the said several infected districts into the Province of Canterbury:—

1. If any person shall import, drive, or remove, or cause to be imported, driven, or removed, or assist in driving or removing, any cattle from either of the said infected districts into the Province of Canterbury, except upon Quarantine

Ground, and the authority of a Quarantine Certificate, such person shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five pounds and not exceeding fifty pounds for every head of cattle so imported, driven, or removed.

2. It shall be lawful for any Inspector of Cattle or Police Constable to destroy, or cause to be destroyed, any cattle which shall pass into this Province from either of the said districts, contrary to these Regulations.
3. If any person shall wilfully impede or obstruct any Inspector or any Police Constable acting under the authority of these Regulations, every person so offending shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five pounds and not exceeding fifty pounds.
4. These Regulations shall take effect from and after the day following the date of publication in the New Zealand Gazette.

Given under my hand this ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WM. ROLLESTON,
Superintendent.
