NELSON GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

Superintendent's Office, Nelson,
16th February, 1870.

JAMES McLAUGHLIN is hereby authorised under Section XIII. of the "Gold Fields Act, 1866," to construct a Track, commencing at his store at Noble's Junction and ending on the Terrace at Napoleon Hill, and to charge for a period of six months from the Twenty-second day of February instant the Toll of Two shillings and sixpence for each horse, Two shillings for each head of Cattle, and Sixpence for each sheep (one way) on the following conditions:—

1. That the Track shall at all times be maintained in a good state of repair, and no Tolls be recoverable unless the Warden be satisfied that this condition has been fully complied with.
2. That any person using the Track may at any time become a part proprietor on payment of a proportionate share of the expenditure on such Track, the amount so payable to be settled by arbitration in the usual way.

3. That this protection does not interfere with any existing rights or privileges, nor prejudice the right of the Government to make a grant of protection to any other track, but no protection will be granted for any other track within a chain of this one.

4. That all Government officers, road overseers and laborers, and postmen shall use the track when on duty free of charge.

5. That this protection shall not be transferred without the sanction of the Warden.

6. That the track shall, if required, be given up to the Government at a valuation.

OSWALD CURTIS,
Superintendent.
