Superintendent's Office, Nelson,
March 4th, 1872.

PROTECTION is hereby GRANTED, subject to the following conditions, for three years from this date, under the provisions of "The Goldfields Act, 1866," to WILLIAM COURTNEY, of Westport Contractor, for a TRAMWAY to be constructed by him from Reefton to Black's Point, Inangahua district, and the said William Courtney is hereby authorized subject to the following conditions, to charge the toll hereinafter specified, during the term of this protection.

1. Situation of line to be approved by the Provincial Engineer.
2. The tramway to be commenced within one month from this date, and completed, to the satisfaction of the Provincial Engineer, by the Thirtieth day of June, 1872, and must be kept in good working order and repair during the whole of the term to the satisfaction of the Provincial Engineer.
3. That a properly-constructed truck shall be run each way at least eight times every day, except Sundays, at regular stated times between the hours of eight o'clock a.m. and eight o'clock p.m.
4. That a good lamp, properly lighted, shall be carried in front of the truck when running on dark nights.
5. The tolls shall not exceed the following, viz: For every passenger between the hours of eight o'clock, a.m., and eight o'clock, p.m., One Shilling; and from eight p.m. to eight a.m., One Shilling and Sixpence; for every ton of goods, Ten Shillings.
6. The Superintendent reserves the right to cancel this protection at any time during the said term of three years, if any of the above conditions are not carried out to his satisfaction, and in the event of any complaint arising, the Superintendent may suspend the operation of this protection until the matter has been enquired into and decided upon.
7. Should this protection be cancelled, as provided by clause 6 hereof, the said tramway shall become the property of the Provincial Government, and the Superintendent shall have the right to immediate possession thereof; and the said William Courtney shall not be entitled to any compensation or payment for the same.
8. The Superintendent to have the right at any time of taking the tramway at a valuation to be made in the usual way, in which case the valuation of the work only to be taken exclusive of good will.
9. No tolls shall be recoverable unless it be proved to the satisfaction of the Warden that the tramway is in fair working order.
10. The tramway shall be at all times open to the public, free of charge, as a footpath.
11. This protection shall not be transferred or assigned without the sanction of the Superintendent.
