VOL. XXII.

NELSON, MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 1873.

No. 5.

PROCLAMATION.

I, OSWALD CURTIS, Superintendent of the Province of Nelson, in the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the power and authority in me vested in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the first meeting of the Central Board of Health for the Province of Nelson shall be held at the Superintendent's Office, Nelson, on TUESDAY, the 28th day of January instant.

Given under my hand and issued under the public seal of the Province, this sixteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

OSWALD CURTIS,
Superintendent.

Attested—

ALFRED GREENFIELD,
Provincial Secretary.

Superintendent's Office, Nelson,
January 16, 1873.

IT is hereby notified for general information that the PROTECTION granted under the provisions of "The Goldfields Act, 1866," to WILLIAM COURTNEY, for the construction of a Tramway from Reefton to Black's Point, dated 4th of March 1872, and published in the Nelson Provincial Government Gazette, No. 7, of the 5th of March, 1872, has been CANCELLED.

OSWALD CURTIS,
Superintendent.

Superintendent's Office, Nelson,
January 16, 1873.

PROTECTION has been granted, subject to the following conditions, for three years from the 23rd day of August, 1872, under the provisions of "The Goldfields Act, 1866," to the REEFTON TRAMWAY COMPANY, for a Tramway to be constructed from Reefton to Black's Point, Inangahua district, and the said Company is hereby authorised, subject to the following conditions, to charge the Tolls hereinafter specified, during the term of this protection.

1. Situation of line to be approved by the Provincial Engineer.
2. The tramway to be completed, to the satisfaction of the Provincial Engineer, by the Fifteenth day of March next, and must be kept in good working order and repair during the whole of the term to the satisfaction of the Provincial Engineer.
3. That a properly constructed truck shall be run each way at least eight times every day, except Sundays, at regular stated times between the hours of eight o'clock a.m. and eight o'clock p.m.
4. That a good lamp, properly lighted, shall be carried in front of the truck when running on dark nights.
5. The tolls shall not exceed the following, viz.—
For every passenger between the hours of eight o'clock a.m. and eight o'clock p.m. One Shilling; and from eight p.m. to eight a.m. One Shilling and Sixpence; for every ton of goods Ten Shillings.
6. The Superintendent reserves the right to cancel this protection at any time during the said term of three years, if any of the above conditions are not carried out to his satisfaction; and in the event of any complaint arising, the Superintendent may suspend the operation of this protection until the matter has been inquired into and decided upon.
7. Should this protection be cancelled, as provided by clause 6 hereof, the said tramway shall become the property of the Provincial Government, and the Superintendent shall have the right to immediate possession thereof; and the said Company shall not be entitled to any compensation or payment for the same.
8. The Superintendent to have the right at any time of taking the tramway at a valuation, to be made in the usual way; in which case the valuation of the work only to be taken, exclusive of goodwill.
9. No tolls shall be recoverable unless it be proved to the satisfaction of the Warden that the tramway is in fair working order.
10. The tramway shall be at all times open to the public, free of charge, as a footpath.
11. This protection shall not be transferred or assigned without the sanction of the Superintendent.

OSWALD CURTIS,
Superintendent.

DANIEL M'LEOD, of Westport, in the Province of Nelson, Contractor, having been authorised, subject to the undermentioned conditions, under clause 13 of "The Goldfields Act, 1866," to construct a Wharf on the North Bank of the Buller River, between the lower side of Nelson-street and the lower side of Pakington-street, is hereby authorised to charge not exceeding the undermentioned Tolls on the said Wharf, for a period of Five Years from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

1. That the said Daniel M'Leod shall maintain the said wharf in good repair and condition during the said term, and pay a rental of five pounds per annum to the Warden of the district, or to some other person authorised by the Superintendent to receive the same.
2. The said Daniel M'Leod shall also erect a substantial wharf along the whole of the frontage hereby protected or any part thereof to the satisfaction of the Provincial Engineer when called upon to do so by the Superintendent or forfeit his right to the frontage unoccupied by such substantial wharf.
3. The wharf shall be subject to the provisions of the Harbor Regulations which may from time to time be in force in the Buller river.
4. Should the Government consider it necessary for the construction of protective works, or for any other public purpose, the Superintendent shall have power to cancel this protection at any time; and the said Daniel M'Leod shall in that case be paid the value of the wharf at the time of such cancellation, but the said Daniel M'Leod shall not be entitled to compensation beyond the actual value of the structure, which will be ascertained in the usual way.
5. The Warden of the district shall have power, on being satisfied that the wharf is not maintained in a good state of repair, or that any of the above conditions have not been carried out, to suspend the operation of this protection until the matter of complaint be removed; and if not removed within a reasonable time the Superintendent may cancel this protection.
6. In the event of this protection being cancelled under the provisions of clause 4 hereof, the said wharf, with all fixtures thereon, shall become the property of the Provincial Government of Nelson, and the Superintendent shall have power to take immediate possession thereof on behalf of the Province; and the said Daniel M'Leod or his assigns shall not in such case be entitled to any compensation.

COLLIERY RESERVE AT WESTPORT NO LONGER CROWN LANDS.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Goldfields Act 1868," it is provided that all such Crown Lands as have been declared Public Reserves, or set apart or applied for or to any public use or purpose, situate within the Nelson South-west Goldfields, shall be deemed to have formed part of the Crown Lands within the said Goldfields from the first proclamation of Goldfields, known as the Nelson South-west Goldfields, under "The Goldfields Act 1862," and "The Goldfields Act 1866," respectively, and to have been open for occupation for mining purposes, and for residence and business under miners' rights, mining leases, and business licenses, as the case may be, and to continue to form part of such Crown Lands, and to be open for such occupation as aforesaid: Provided that the Governor may at any time, and from time to time, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, declare that the same or any part thereof shall cease to form part of such Crown Lands, and thereupon such land or such part thereof shall cease to be deemed to be Crown Lands open for such occupation as aforesaid: And whereas the piece or parcel of Crown land described in the Schedule hereto was, on or about the fifteenth day of June, 1863, declared to be a Public Reserve for the purposes of a Public Quay and Colliery Depot: And whereas it is expedient that a Proclamation should be made in manner and for the purposes hereinafter set forth:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the hereinbefore in part recited Act, do hereby declare that the said parcel of land described in the Schedule hereto shall from and after the thirteenth day of December instant, cease to form part of such Crown land as aforesaid.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Dunedin, this Twentieth day of December, in the year of Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
