VOL. XXIII.

NELSON, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1874.

No. 11.

NOTICE TO PUBLICANS.

Superintendent's Office, Nelson,
February 21, 1874.

ALL PUBLICAN'S LICENSES issued under the provisions of the "Nelson Licensing Act, 1867," the "Licensing Amendment Act, 1872," or the "Nelson Goldfields Licensing Act, 1872," will be null and void on and after the 1st day of July, 1874, from which date no licenses for the sale of spirituous liquors can be issued, excepting under the provisions of the "Licensing Act, 1873," of the General Assembly.

Persons requiring new licenses, or renewal of existing licenses, must therefore apply on or before the first Tuesday in March next to the Clerk of the Resident Magistrate for the Licensing District within which their licensed houses are respectively situated.

ALFRED GREENFIELD,
Provincial Secretary.

Superintendent's Office, Nelson,
February 21, 1874.

THE following Clauses of "The Publicans Licensing Act, 1873," of the General Assembly, are published for general information.

ALFRED GREENFIELD,
Provincial Secretary.

CLAUSES.

7. Licenses of the following kinds and designated as follows, and such as may be provided for by any Act or Ordinance of the Provincial Council of the Province in which the house for which such license is to be granted is situated, may be granted, namely:—Wholesale license, publican's license, bottle license, and packet license; and such licenses shall be in force from the time of granting the same until the thirtieth day of June next ensuing, and no longer.

8. The wholesale license shall be in the form in the Schedule B hereunto annexed, and shall authorise the holder thereof to sell and deliver alcoholic liquors in quantities of not less than two gallons of any one description of liquor to one person at any one time, such liquors not to be consumed in or upon the vendor's house or premises.
9. The publican's license shall be in the form in the Schedule C hereunto annexed, and shall authorise the holder thereof to sell and dispose of alcoholic liquors in any quantity, in the house or on the premises therein specified.
10. No person, being the holder of a publican's license issued under this Act, shall be entitled to have in or upon the premises in respect of which the said license shall have been issued, more than one public bar for the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors therein; and any person offending against this provision shall be held to be guilty of selling without a license, and liable on conviction thereof to a penalty of not less than five pounds nor more than fifty pounds.
11. The packet license shall be in the form in the Schedule D hereunto annexed, and may be granted to the master or commander for the time being of any steam packet or other vessel therein mentioned, being a vessel making passages and carrying passengers from any place to any other place within the said Colony of New Zealand; and such master or commander shall be thereby authorised, while such packet or vessel is actually being navigated between any port or harbor or on any river or lake within the limits of the said Colony, to sell and dispose of any alcoholic liquors on board such packet or vessel to any bona fide passengers by such packet or vessel.
12. The Provincial Treasurer of any province, or if there shall be no such person, then any other person or persons appointed by the Governor, may and shall issue to any person a wholesale license for any house or premises within any town or borough, or in any licensing district, on production of a certificate from any Licensing Court held under this Act. Applications for wholesale licenses shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Court at the same time and in the same manner as hereinafter provided for the application for and granting of certificates for publicans' licenses; but no certificate of householders shall be necessary in the case of wholesale licenses or steam packet licenses: Provided always that in any province where such license fees have been made portion of municipal revenue, any person authorised by any such Municipality shall have power to issue such licenses on the production of such certificate as aforesaid.

13. Every person who shall desire to obtain a publican's or bush license or the renewal of one under this Act shall, on or before the first Tuesday in the month of March in every year, cause to be delivered to the Clerk of the Resident Magistrate of the district a notice in writing signed by him, in the form in Schedule E hereunto annexed, accompanied by a certificate signed by at least ten householders of the district, in the form contained in Schedule E hereunto appended.
15. On the third Tuesday in the month of April following, or on some day to be fixed by the Resident Magistrate as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, there shall be holden at the office of the Resident Magistrate, or other place appointed by him, a Court to be called the Annual Licensing Court, for the purpose of taking into consideration applications for certificates.

Superintendent's Office, Nelson,
February 21, 1874.

THE following Clauses of "The Licensing Law Amendment Act, 1874," of the Provincial Council are published for general information.

ALFRED GREENFIELD,
Provincial Secretary.

CLAUSES.

1. The fees payable in respect of Wholesale Licenses and Packet Licenses issued under the said Act shall be for each Wholesale License ten pounds and for each Packet License ten pounds.
2. The Annual Licensing Court of the District may grant to any person a certificate authorising the issue of a license to be called an "Accommodation License" which shall authorise the sale by the person named therein of alcoholic liquors in any house within the Province therein specified and such license may be granted on the terms of repairing or keeping in repair the roads or bridges adjacent to such house keeping a ferry or providing good accommodation for travellers or on such of the former or such other terms as the Annual Licensing Court shall think fit including the payment of a fee not exceeding twenty pounds to be fixed by the Court and every applicant for any such license shall on making his application to the Court present to the Court a written statement signed by the Superintendent of the terms and the fee the Superintendent and his Executive Council recommend to be imposed by the Court in respect of such license.
