VOL. XXIII.

NELSON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1874.

No. 41.

BYE-LAW made by the PANGATOTARA DISTRICT HIGHWAYS BOARD, for the Protection and Preservation of the Banks of Rivers within the said District:—

If any horse, mule, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle of any kind, shall, at any time after this Bye-law shall come into operation, be found depasturing or being—whether under the tendence or control of any person or persons or not—in or upon any road bounded by any river within the limits of the Pangatotara District, and thereby causing damage to the banks of any such river, or destroying anything that may be placed or planted on such river bank for the protection of the same; the owner of every such horse, mule, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle of any kind shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a breach of this Bye-law, and shall, for every such breach, upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty of not exceeding Ten shillings for each such animal depasturing or being as aforesaid: Provided that no penalty, upon one such conviction, shall exceed the sum of Forty shillings. Or any such horse, mule, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle of any kind, found depasturing or being as aforesaid, may be driven to the nearest Public Pound and impounded therein.

Dated this Twenty-eighth day of July, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

THOMAS GROOBY,
Chairman of Board.

Approved this Twenty-sixth day of August, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

D. ROUGH,
Deputy Superintendent.

BYE-LAWS FOR THE SUBURBAN NORTH ROAD BOARD.

1. The occupiers, or in case there shall be no occupiers, then the owners of any land upon which a gorse or other hedge shall be growing, adjoining any public road, shall, so soon as the portion of the said road adjoining his said land shall be clear, thenceforward keep the same at all times clear of gorse or other obstruction which it may reasonably be supposed have proceeded from the said hedge: and in case such occupier or owner, as the case may be, shall refuse or neglect to clean such road, after receiving fourteen days notice in writing to do so from the Road Board, he shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding Forty shillings.
2. The owners of any horse, mule, ass, sheep, swine, or any other beast or cattle of any kind, which shall, at any time after this Bye-law shall come into operation, be found depasturing in or upon any fenced or formed road, or the sides, or any ditch or bank thereof, within the limits of the Suburban North Road Board, whether under the tendence or control of any person or not, and thereby causing any damage to such road, ditch, bank, or fence, shall be liable to a fine for each animal so depasturing, and causing any damage as aforesaid, of not more than Ten shillings: provided always that the amount of such penalty shall not exceed Forty shillings.

JAMES MACKAY,
Chairman of Board.

Approved this Thirteenth day of August, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

RULES OF THE GREY DISTRICT
ACCLIMATISATION SOCIETY.

[The term District shall mean the Electoral District of the Grey Valley.]

OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

1. The objects of the Society shall be the Introduction, Acclimatisation, and Domestication of all Innocuous Animals, Birds, Fishes, Insects, and Vegetables, whether useful or ornamental; the perfection, propagation, and hybridisation of species newly introduced, or already domesticated; the spread of indigenous animals, &c., from parts of the colony where they are already known, to other localities where they are not known; the procuring, whether by purchase, gift, or exchange of animals, &c., from Great Britain, the British Colonies, and Foreign Countries; the transmission of animals, &c., from the Colony to England and foreign parts, in exchange for others sent to the Society; the holding of periodical meetings, and the publication of reports and transactions, for the purpose of spreading knowledge of acclimatisation, and inquiry into the causes of success or failure; the interchange of reports, &c., with kindred associations in other parts of the world, with the view, by correspondence and mutual good offices, of giving the widest possible scope to the project of acclimatisation; the conferring rewards, honorary or intrinsically valuable, upon seafaring men, passengers from distant countries, and others, who may render valuable assistance to the cause of acclimatisation.

MEMBERSHIP.

2. A subscriber of one guinea, or upwards, annually, shall be a member of the Society; and contributors, within one year, of ten guineas, or upwards, shall be Life Members of the Society; and any person who may render special service to the Society, by contribution of stock, or otherwise, shall be eligible for Life Membership, and may be elected as such by the Council or by any Annual General Meeting.

SUBSCRIPTION.

3. The Annual Subscription shall be payable on the 1st day of October in each year, in advance, and shall be received by the duly appointed Collector, who, on receiving the same, shall cause the person so subscribing to be enrolled a member accordingly.

ELECTION OF COUNCIL.

4. The Society shall be governed by a Council of thirty-five members, to include Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Treasurer, and Hon. Secretary, to be elected by ballot at the first General Meeting of the Society, seven of whom shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election.

VACANCIES SUPPLIED.

5. In case of any vacancy occurring by death, or resignation, of any member of Council, or the non-attendance of any town member of Council, for the period of three months, the remaining members shall appoint another member of the Society to be a member of the Council, in the place of the deceased, or resigned, or absenting member, without such absence be caused by ill health, when, and upon the Council receiving such information from the absenting member, the Council shall abstain from electing a fresh member in his stead; provided that such vacancy shall not be supplied by the Council except after seven days notice given of the new member to be proposed, and in the presence of at least seven members of the Council.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

5. The Society shall hold General Meetings in January, April, July, and September, in each year, and five members shall form a quorum; at such meetings papers and other communications relating to the objects of the Society, and reports prepared by the Council, shall be received; and such discussions shall be encouraged as may be of value in propagating a knowledge of acclimatisation amongst the members and the public, and such business generally shall be disposed of as may be brought under consideration by the Council, or by any member who shall have given seven days previous notice thereof to the Secretary, or as a majority of two-thirds of the members present shall see fit to entertain and consider.

MEETING OF COUNCIL.

7. The Council shall meet, at least, once a month, and five members, of whom the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Treasurer, or Hon. Secretary shall be one, shall form a quorum, and be capable of transacting the business of the Council, subject to such limitations as may be imposed by any bye-law of the Council, or rule or resolution of the Society which may be hereafter made.

POWER OF COUNCIL.

8. The Council shall have the sole management of the Society, and of the income and property thereof, for the uses, purposes, and benefit of the Society; and shall have the sole and exclusive right of appointing paid servants, as a manager, or assistant secretary, collector, and such other officers, clerks, and laborers, and at such salaries as they may deem necessary, and of removing them if they shall think fit, and shall prescribe their respective duties; and such Council shall have power to consider and determine all matters, either directly or indirectly, affecting the interests of the Society, and if they shall think fit to do so, shall bring the same under the notice of the members of the Society, at any General or Special Meeting; and to make such Bye-laws as they may deem necessary for the efficient management of the affairs, and the promotion of the objects of the Society, and for the conduct of the business of the Council, provided the same are not repugnant to the rules; to appoint one or more sub-committees for any purpose contemplated by these rules; and generally to perform such acts as may be requisite to carry out the objects of the Society; which Bye-laws are to be subject to ratification, or emendation, or rejection, by the next Annual or Special General Meeting of the Society, convened for that purpose; and it shall be the duty of the Council to exercise the foregoing powers as occasion may require; and to furnish reports of the proceedings at every Periodical and Annual Meeting of the Society.

BRANCH SOCIETIES.

9. The Society shall have power to affiliate or associate itself with Societies of kindred objects and to found branch societies if desirable, and the Council shall have power to carry out any arrangements for this purpose, and to furnish any monthly or other reports.

MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS.

10. Minutes shall be made in books kept for the purpose, of all the proceedings at the general and special meetings of the members, and minutes shall also be made of the proceedings of the Council at their general and special meetings, and the names of the members attending the same, and such minutes shall be open to inspection by the members of the society at all reasonable times.

CUSTODY AND PAYMENT OF MONIES.

11. All subscriptions and other moneys payable to the Society shall be paid to the Treasurer, who shall forthwith place the same in a Bank, to be named by the Council, to the credit of the Society; and no sum shall be paid on account of the Society until the same shall have been ordered by the Council, and such order to be duly entered in the book of the proceedings of the Council; and all cheques shall be signed by the Treasurer as such, and be countersigned by the Chairman or Secretary or by some other members of the Council delegated by the Council to act as such.

ANNUAL MEETING.

12. An Annual Meeting shall be held on the First Wednesday in January in each year, or if a holiday, then upon the next day following; and the Council shall report their proceedings during the past year, and shall produce their accounts, duly audited, for publication if deemed desirable; and the meeting shall elect new members of council in place of those retiring by rotation. And notices of motion must be furnished to the Honorary Secretary or Assistant Secretary, one day previous to the holding of such meeting, or such motion may be rejected by the Chairman.

SUBSCRIPTIONS IN ARREAR.

13. Any member whose subscription is three months in arrear shall be informed of the fact by the Secretary; and if the subscription be not paid in three months more, such member shall cease to belong to the Society until all the arrears are paid.

SPECIAL MEETINGS OF MEMBERS.

14. Upon receiving a requisition in writing, signed by twelve or more members of the Society, or upon a resolution of the Council, the Honorary Secretary shall convene a special meeting of the members to be held within fifteen days of the receipt by him, of such requisition or resolution, and the notice thereunder convening the meeting shall specify the subject to be considered at such meeting, and that subject only shall be discussed at such meeting.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

15. The Council or any general meeting of the Society may admit, as Honorary Members, such ladies or gentlemen as may have distinguished themselves with the objects of the Society, or in objects of a kindred nature.

POWER TO ALTER RULES.

16. It shall be lawful for any annual or special meeting of the Society to alter, vary, or amend the rules, or to substitute another for any of the same; or to make any new rule which may be considered desirable; if, and after notice specifying the nature of such alteration, variation, amendment, substitution, or new rule, shall have been given to the Honorary Secretary fifteen days before the holding of such meeting, and such alteration, variation, amendment, substitution, or new rule, shall be valid if carried by a majority of not less than two thirds of the members present at such meeting.

JOSEPH KILGOUR, Chairman.
J. T. FITZGERALD, Manager.
EDMUND WICKES, Treasurer.
JAMES PAYNE, Secretary.

BRANCH SOCIETIES.
3. The Society shall have power to affiliate or associate itself with Societies of kindred objects and to form branch Societies if desirable, and the Council shall have power to carry out any arrangements for this purpose, and to furnish any money or other reports.
MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS.
10. Minutes shall be made in books kept for the purpose of all the proceedings at the general and special meetings of the members and minutes shall also be made of the proceedings of the Council at their general and special meetings, and the names of the members attending the same, and such minutes shall be open to inspection by the members of the Society at all reasonable times.
CUSTODY AND PAYMENT OF MONIES.
11. All subscriptions and other moneys payable to the Society shall be paid to the Treasurer, who shall forthwith place the same in a bank to be named by the Council, to the credit of the Society; and no sum shall be paid on account of the Society until the same shall have been ordered by the Council, and such order to be duly entered in the book of the proceedings.
