29. Every summons of an Assessors or Juror shall be served on him personally, or by leaving the same at his ordinary place of abode, at least one clear day before the sitting of the Court.

31. The four thus remaining shall be empannelled and sworn to give their verdict in the cause to be brought before them.

32. Every such Juror thus empannelled shall be entitled to receive from the Clerk of the Court the sum of ten shillings, and the expense thereby incurred shall be costs in the cause.

35. It shall not be necessary that the Assessors or Jurors give an unanimous verdict, but Judgment shall be entered up in pursuance of the verdict of the majority.

36. Every Judgment entered up in pursuance of the verdict of a Jury, shall have the same force and effect as if such Judgment were entered in pursuance of the determination of the Judgment of the Court alone.

37. A Minute of every Decision shall be entered by the Judge, in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be signed by the persons, whether Assessors or Jurors, who concur in making such Decision, and no formal order shall be necessary, and a copy of such Minute shall, on demand, be given to any of the parties interested therein.

38. It being competent to the Court, whenever it shall seem fit, to order the working of any miner's claim affected by any matter in dispute brought before the Court, to be suspended until such matter shall have been investigated and adjudicated upon, if in any complaint there shall be set forth sufficient grounds in the opinion of the Court for an interim order or injunction on the person complained against to desist from working his claim, or from any act or proceeding in the working thereof likely to cause irreparable or serious injury, and if such relief or remedy be then claimed, the Judge may issue such order or injunction in the meantime. And afterwards, on hearing the parties, may recal the same, or otherwise decide as he may see fit.

39. All the costs of any complaint or proceeding shall be taxed by the Court, and shall be paid or apportioned between the parties in such manner as to the Judge shall seem fit, but in default of any special direction, such costs shall abide the event of the action.

44. The Judge may make such order as he may think fit, concerning the times, and by what instalments any sum of money for which judgment shall be obtained shall be paid; and all such money shall be paid into Court unless the Judge shall otherwise direct.

45. Every Order, Decree, or Judgment, made by the Court, shall be carried out and enforced in the same manner as any order or judgment of a Resident Magistrate may be enforced according to the Law for the time being in force for regulating summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace.

46. The Judge may at all times amend all defects and errors in any proceeding in this Court.

47. In default of the payment of any Fees, payment thereof, by order of the Judge, may be enforced by such means as may be employed to recover any sum of money adjudged by the Court to be paid.

48. The Judge, the Clerk, and any other Officer may refuse to do any act for which a fee shall be demandable, unless such fee shall be first paid.

49. The appeal allowed by Section 25 of the Act, shall be in the form of a case, agreed on by both parties or their Solicitors, and if they cannot agree, the Judge of the Wardens' Court, upon being applied to by them or their Solicitors, shall settle the case and sign it, and such case shall be transmitted by the Appellant to the Registrar of the Court of appeal.

Despatch from Secretary of State, requesting information respecting disease of Leprosy.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, November 25th, 1862.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Despatch, with its Enclosures, from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, respecting the disease of Leprosy.

Members of the Medical profession in this Colony are requested to be good enough to furnish any information in their possession in reply to the Interrogatories, in order that it may be transmitted to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

ALFRED DOMETT.

Downing Street,
28th August, 1862.

SIR,—A suggestion having been made by the Governor-in-Chief of the Windward Islands, that Reports should be obtained from the West Indian Colonies, and collated by some professional body in this country, respecting the character and progress of the disease of Leprosy, I was disposed to think that advantage would result from the adoption of Governor Walker's suggestion, and with this view I requested the assistance of the College of Physicians, in order to the subject being put in a right train. The College have expressed their willingness to collate, digest, and report upon any information which may be collected, and they desire that it should be sought, not from the West Indian Colonies only, but from all the Colonial Possessions of the Crown.

I transmit to you, therefore, the accompanying series of Interrogatories, which have been framed by a Committee of the College.

I have to instruct you to forward these Interrogatories to the principal Medical Officers in the Colony under your government, and to any other Medical men of ability and experience whom you may find willing to lend their co-operation, with a request that they will furnish every information in their power in answer to them.

I have, &c.,
NEWCASTLE.

Governor Sir George Grey,
&c., &c., &c.

Dr. Pitman to Sir F. Rogers.

Royal College of Physicians,
London, S.W.,
9th August, 1862.

SIR,—I have the honor to forward a series of Interrogatories, framed with a view to collect information concerning the disease of Leprosy, by a Committee appointed by the College for that purpose, in compliance with a request of his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, conveyed in your letter of July 1st.

I am instructed to request that copies of the Interrogatories, when printed, be forwarded to the College to be sent to those members of the profession in this country, or elsewhere, who may be able to furnish information to the Committee of the College upon the subject in question.

I am, &c.,
(Signed) HENRY A. PITMAN, M.D.,
Registrar.

Royal College of Physicians,
24th July, 1862.

The Committee appointed by the College on June 14th, "to frame Interrogatories, with a view to obtain Reports from the West India Colonies on the subject of Leprosy," have prepared the following series.

As the disease is known to exist, not only in many foreign countries, but also in various British Colonies in the East, and elsewhere, the Committee are of opinion that it is very desirable that the Interrogatories should be sent to all the Colonies of the Empire.

NOTE.—It is requested that all replies may be written on foolscap paper, and on one side only of the leaf.

INTERROGATORIES.

1. Is Leprosy known in the Colony of ? If so, be pleased briefly to describe it as it occurs there.

a. Are there several different forms or outward manifestations of Leprosy? If so, by what names are they respectively known?

b. Are these several forms, in your opinion, only varieties of one common morbid state? or are they specifically distinct diseases, having no affinity with each other?

c. Please to enumerate succinctly the more obvious and distinguishing characters of each form of Leprosy which you have seen.

2. At what age does the disease generally manifest itself? and what are usually the earliest symptoms observable?

3. At what period of life, and within what time, does the disease usually attain its full development? And at what period of life, and after what time, does it usually prove fatal?

4. Is the disease more frequent in one sex than in the other?—if so, in what proportion?

5. Is it more frequent among certain races?—among the white, the coloured, or the black population?—and in what relative proportions?

6. In what condition of society is the disease of most frequent occurrence,—and what are the circumstances which seem to favour its development in individuals, or in groups of individuals?

Please to enumerate these circumstances under the following heads:—

a. The characters of the place or district where the disease most frequently occurs, in respect of its being urban or rural—on the sea-coast, or inland—low, damp, and malarial, or hilly and dry.

b. The sanitary condition of the dwellings, and of their immediate neighbourhood.

c. The habits of life, as to personal cleanliness, or otherwise.

d. The ordinary diet and general way of living.

e. The occupation or employment.

7. What conditions or circumstances of life seem to accelerate or aggravate the disease when it has once manifested itself in an individual?

8. Does the disease appear often to be hereditary?

Have you known instances where one member only of a family has been affected, while all the other members remained free from any trace of it?

9. Have you reason to believe that Leprosy is in any way dependent on or connected with Syphilis, Yaws, or any other disease?

Honorary Treasurer:
Mr. Edward Gem.
Bankers:
Messrs. Lloyd.
Secretary (pro tem.):
Mr. John Bate.

OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

To disseminate information on the subject of Emigration.

To assist intending Emigrants by information and advice.

To make arrangements for the passage of Emigrants to the Colonies.

To make advances, by way of loan, whenever the funds of the Society shall permit, to Emigrants, for their outward passage.

To correspond with the Colonial Governments in reference to the labour requirements of their respective Colonies, and the classes of Emigrants needed; and to obtain their co-operation and support.

To carry out these objects, the Committee appeal to the Nobility, Gentry, and inhabitants generally of the vast district of which Birmingham is the centre, confidently anticipating for the undertaking the support it deserves.

To the mercantile classes, the Committee desire to point out the increasing commerce which must result from the development of our Colonies; in proof of which it has been ascertained that our South Pacific Colonies take from us, in imports, for every man, woman, and child of their respective populations, on the average, from £8 to £10 per head per annum; while the United States were only customers to us in 1859 (before the war began) at the rate of 17s. per head.

To the ratepayers they say, "Help our superabundant population, and prevent them from becoming paupers, by the advice and assistance it will be the province of this Society to supply."

From our inland position, correct information on the important subject of Emigration is difficult to obtain. The numerous inquiries made, since the Meeting* was held at the Midland Institute, show the interest felt in it here to be as great as in other parts of the kingdom; and there is not a doubt that the Colonies will gladly co-operate with a society established on sound principles, whose aim will be to send the "right people to the right place," for their benefit equally with their own.

It is not proposed to give free passages, but to grant assistance by loans, at the discretion of the Committee, to deserving Emigrants; and it is hoped the Society will, in a few years, have at its disposal a Benevolent Fund sufficient to compass a great and constantly increasing amount of good. As it will materially aid the undertaking if the Colonial Commissioners, who attended the preliminary meeting, are in a position to inform their different Governments, on returning to the Colonies, that the Society has commenced its operations, the Committee earnestly impress on all able and willing to assist in this good work the importance of not losing time in raising the necessary funds.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,
EDWARD GEM, Chairman.
Birmingham, Sept, 1862.
