WELLINGTON, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1880.

*Proclamation of Aroha Gold-Mining District under
"The Gold-Mining Districts Act, 1873."*

(L.S.) JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Gold-Mining Districts Act, 1873," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, by Proclamation in the General Government Gazette, to constitute and appoint any district to be a gold-mining district under the said Act, to assign boundaries to such district, to enlarge, contract, or otherwise alter such boundaries, and to declare by what local name every such district shall be designated:

And whereas it is expedient that the district described in the Schedule hereto should be constituted a gold-mining district under the said Act:

Now, therefore, I, James Prendergast, Chief Justice of the Colony of New Zealand, and Administrator of the Government thereof, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in the Governor by the said Act, do hereby constitute the district particularly described in the Schedule hereto to be a gold-mining district under the said Act and its amending Act, with the boundaries in the said Schedule mentioned; and do declare that such district shall be designated by the name of "The Aroha Gold-Mining District."

This Proclamation to take effect on and from Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of November instant, at nine o'clock in the morning.

SCHEDULE.
