NOTICE.

To the Holders of Runs in the Province of Wellington.

ALL Persons occupying awarded Runs on the Waste Lands within the Province of Wellington, and who have not already done so, are required to send in the Plans and approximate estimates of Acreage of their Runs, in accordance with Regulation XI, Condition 1, of the Additional Regulations for the Province, before the 1st day of February next; and also to pay all arrears of Rent from the date when the award of such Runs may have been Gazetted. In case of any person neglecting to forward such plan and estimate, and to pay such arrears, he will be held to have abandoned his claim to such Run, and the same will be considered open to selection by other applicants.

The Plans and Estimates to be sent in as follows:—

For the District lately in charge of Mr. Domett (north of the Warehama river), to be sent to Mr. Tiffen, District Surveyor, or to the Chief Land Commissioner at Wellington.

For the Wairarapa and East Coast, and all south of the Warehama river (late in charge of Mr. Bell), to the Chief Land Commissioner at Wellington.

For the Wanganui, Turakina, and Rangitikei, to the Chief Land Commissioner at Wellington.

All Rents to be paid to the Chief Land Commissioner, at his Office, Thorndon Flat, Wellington.

WILLIAM FOX,
Chief Land Commissioner,
Wellington.

Extract from the Land Regulations above referred to.

"No License whatever shall be issued until the approximate accuracy of the computation of the acreage of the run shall be certified to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, and endorsed on a plan thereof, which plan shall exhibit as nearly as may be the boundaries of the run, and shall be attached to the license. The applicant is bound to obtain such certificate and plan at his expense."
