Block of Land set apart for the Purposes of
"The Westland Loan Act, 1873."

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Westland Loan Act, 1873," it is, among other things enacted that a block or blocks of waste lands of the Crown, in the County of Westland, not exceeding in the whole two hundred and fifty thousand acres, shall, in the manner therein provided, be set aside as a special security, as between the Colony and the County of Westland, for the loan by the said Act authorised: And by the said Act it is also enacted that the land so to be set aside shall be such as shall be agreed on between the Governor and the Chairman of the County Council of the said County, and shall be of fair average value, and in one block or more blocks than one; and if in several blocks, of blocks of not less than fifty thousand acres each: And it is by the said Act further enacted, that such lands, when selected and agreed upon, shall, by Proclamation by the Governor in Council published in the New Zealand Gazette, be declared to be set aside for the purposes of the said Act: And whereas the block of land described in the Schedule hereto has been selected out of the waste lands of the Crown in the said County, and has been agreed on between the Governor and the Chairman of the County Council of the said County as the land to be set aside for the purposes of the said Act:

Now therefore, I, Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority vested in me by the said in part recited Act, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Colony, do hereby proclaim and declare that the block of land described in the Schedule hereto shall be and the same is hereby set aside for the purposes of "The Westland Loan Act, 1873."

JULIUS VOGEL.

SCHEDULE.

A block of land not exceeding in the whole two hundred and fifty-thousand acres, situated and being within the following boundaries, viz.:—On the North the Waitaha River; on the South the Waitaroha River; on the East the boundary of the County; on the West the coast line.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the Governor of New Zealand, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at Christchurch; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

JULIUS VOGEL.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
